12.2 HALF YEAR BUDGET REVIEW 2023/2024

D2024/03594

PURPOSE OF REPORT

The purpose of this report is to provide Council, via the Audit Committee, with details of the Eastern Metropolitan Regional Council's (EMRC's) 2023/2024 half year budget review for adoption and subsequent submission to the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries.

KEY POINT(S)

- It is a requirement of r.33A of the Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996 that a local government, between 1 January and 31 March in each year, is to carry out a review of its annual budget for that year.
- Council receives monthly financial reports inclusive of end of year forecasts. Forecasts have been constantly monitored and reviewed based on current information and circumstances available to provide a more accurate forecast of the year end result.

RECOMMENDATION(S)

That Council, by absolute majority in accordance with r.33A of the Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996, adopts the review of the 2023/2024 budget and approves its submission to the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries within 14 days.

SOURCE OF REPORT

Chief Financial Officer

BACKGROUND

- 1 It is a requirement of r.33A of the Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996 that a local government, between 1 January and 31 March in each year, is to carry out a review of its annual budget for that year.
- 2 Regulation 33A also states that within 14 days after a review of the annual budget of a local government is carried out it is to be submitted to the Council who is to consider the review submitted to it and is to determine, by absolute majority, whether or not to adopt the review, any parts of the review or any recommendation made to the review.
- 3 A financial report and summaries which provide an overview of year to date budget performance for operating activities and capital works are submitted to each meeting of Council. Variances greater than 10% or $20,000, whichever is the greater, within each nature and type category on the Statement of Comprehensive Income are reported on in the body of the report. Also included are end of year forecasts by nature and type for operating activities and end of year forecasts for each capital works project. These forecasts are reviewed regularly in order to provide an accurate forecast of the end of year result.
- 4 The half year budget review was undertaken during January/February 2024 and is reflected in this report.

REPORT

- 5 Whilst the budget review is a statutory requirement, due to the commercial nature of the EMRC's waste operations, forecasts are conducted throughout the year in order to adjust costs (where possible) in relation to available tonnage throughput.

Format of Budget Review

- 6 The format of the statutory review undertaken is based on an examination by officers of all EMRC accounts (operating income, operating expenditure and capital expenditure accounts) within their area of responsibility.
- 7 A review of the tonnages budgeted to be received at the Red Hill Waste Management Facility (RHWMF) is also undertaken. Tonnage budgets are reviewed to provide a forecast of volumes expected to be received by 30 June 2024. These forecasts, when calculated against the previously adopted disposal rates, provide financial forecasts relating to the following:
 - Income from normal operations (including landfill levy);
 - Secondary Waste Income;
 - Landfill Levy Expenditure;
 - Waste Education Levy Income; and
 - Cell usage and depreciation.
- 8 All forecasts, which are an actual review of the budgets set against each account, are entered into the financial management system in order to provide a more accurate forecast of the end of year result.
- 9 The year to date monthly budget allocations are also reviewed in order to match the appropriate timing for the various projects budgeted to be undertaken. A review is undertaken to ensure that the year to date budget allocations best reflect the timing applicable either to expenditure expected to be incurred or income to be received. This process commences immediately following adoption of the budget and is constantly being monitored and reviewed based on current information and circumstances available. This process provides a better comparison between the year to date actual and year to date budget figures.

Adjustments resulting from Budget Review

- 10 EMRC officers undertook the latest review based on the actual financial data provided for the period ended 31 December 2023. The financial report relating to the period ended 31 January 2024 was submitted to Council at its meeting held on 22 February 2024. However, that report did not include the revised forecasts that have resulted from the half year budget review.
- 11 In accordance with the process followed in previous years, the original budget is not updated with the revised forecasts, as relevant regulations require the end of year results to be compared to the original adopted annual budget, rather than the reviewed budget.
- 12 Whilst it is accepted that many costs are incurred generally within a specific pattern, many are not. These include significant costs incurred relating to operating and capital projects, which depend solely on the timing of when the project is undertaken.

- 13 The following is a summary of the forecast changes to operating budget provisions resulting from the half year budget review:

Changes In	Total
Increase / (Decrease) in Operating Income	$4,118,116
(Increase) / Decrease in Operating Expenditure	$2,084,955
Increase / (Decrease) in Net Assets from Operations	$6,203,071

- 14 Provided below is a summary of changes between the original budget and the forecast for the financial year ending 30 June 2024. Comments are provided for significant variances using Council's adopted criteria of 10% or $20,000, whichever is the greater, as a guide:

The full year forecast for User Charges is above the annual budget by $11,560,752 (26.34%). This variance is attributable to higher than budgeted tonnages forecast to be disposed at the RHWMF. This is due to the delay in the East Rockingham Waste to Energy Project (ERWTE) and an increase in tonnages forecast to be received from commercial clients. This has also resulted in an increase in Landfill Levy Charges.

16 Net User Charges (User Charges less Landfill Levy charges)

- Current Budget: $33,268,643 Forecast Budget: $35,899,837 Variance: $2,631,194; 7.91%

RECOMMENDATION(S)

That Council, by absolute majority in accordance with r.33A of the Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996, adopts the review of the 2023/2024 budget and approves its submission to the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries within 14 days.

The CEO advised that he had a presentation on the half year review for Councillors. He enquired if the Audit Committee members wanted it presented at the Audit Committee meeting to the four members or to present it at the Information Session later in the evening to the full Council.

It was agreed that the presentation be made at the Information Session later that same evening.

Discussion ensued.

Cr Bowman highlighted his struggles to see what Committee Members are approving here as there are no schedule of account numbers for the capital expenditure. He also noted that salary costs are forecast to be more than $1M against budget.

The CFO advised that the account codes are reflected in the attachment to the reports. He also explained that the increase in salary costs is attributable to the additional activities as a result of additional tonnages and income.

The CEO advised that the increases in some capital expenditure items have been represented to Council for its approval. In response to the query of higher than budgeted salary costs, the CEO highlighted that with volumes and income up, the EMRC needs more labour hours to sort, recover and process waste. It remains a challenge to get more staff at short notice and the team is working overtime to deliver the services.

There being no further questions or debate, the AC Chairperson expressed his satisfaction with the explanation provided and put the motion to the vote.

Risk Management

Policy Objective

The objective of this Policy is to state the Eastern Metropolitan Regional Council's ('EMRC's') intention to identify potential risks before they occur so that impacts can be minimised or opportunities realised; ensuring that the EMRC achieves its Strategic and Corporate objectives efficiently, effectively and within good corporate governance principles.

Legislation / Standards

AS/NZS ISO 31000:2018 Risk management – Guidelines

Policy Statement

It is the EMRC's Policy to achieve best practice (aligned with AS/NZS ISO 31000:2018 Risk management – Guidelines), in the management of all risks that may affect the EMRC meeting its objectives.

Risk management functions will be resourced appropriately to match the size and scale of the EMRC's operations, and will form part of the Strategic, Operational, and Project responsibilities and be incorporated within the EMRC's Integrated Planning Framework.

This policy applies to Council Members, Executive Management and all employees and contractors involved in any EMRC operations.

The following points provide detail on the objective specifics:

- 1 Optimises the achievement of the EMRC's values, strategies, goals and objectives.
- 2 Aligns with and assists the implementation of EMRC Policies.
- 3 Provides transparent and formal oversight of the risk and control environment enabling effective decision-making.
- 4 Reflects risk versus return considerations within the EMRC's risk appetite.
- 5 Embeds appropriate and effective controls to mitigate risk.
- 6 Achieves effective corporate governance and adherence to relevant statutory, regulatory and compliance obligations.
- 7 Enhances organisational resilience.
- 8 Identifies and provides for the continuity of critical operations.

Key Policy Definitions

Risk	Effect of uncertainty on objectives. Note 1 An effect is a deviation from the expected – positive or negative. Note 2 Objectives can have different aspects (such as financial, health and safety and environmental goals) and can apply at different levels (such as strategic, organisation-wide, project, product or process).
Risk Management	Coordinated activities to direct and control an organisation with regard to risk.
Risk Management Process	Systematic application of management policies, procedures and practices to the activities of communicating, consulting, establishing the context, and identifying, analysing, evaluating, treating, monitoring and reviewing risk.

Roles and Responsibilities

The CEO is responsible for the:

- Implementation of this Policy.
- Measurement and reporting on the performance of risk management.
- Review and improvement of this Policy and the EMRC's Risk Management Framework at least triennially, or in response to a material event or change in circumstances.

The EMRC's Risk Management Framework outlines in detail all roles and responsibilities under CEO delegation associated with managing risks within the EMRC.

Risk Assessment and Acceptance Criteria

The EMRC has quantified its broad risk appetite through the EMRC's Risk Assessment and Acceptance Criteria. The criteria are included within the Risk Management Framework and as a component of this policy.

All organisational risks are to be assessed according to the EMRC's Risk Assessment and Acceptance Criteria to allow consistency and informed decision-making. For operational requirements such as projects or to satisfy external stakeholder requirements, alternative risk assessment criteria may be utilised, however these cannot exceed the organisation's appetite and are to be noted within the individual risk assessment.

Monitor and Review

The EMRC will implement and integrate a monitor and review process to report on the achievement of the risk management objectives, the management of individual risks and the ongoing identification of issues and trends.

This Policy will be kept under review by the EMRC's Leadership Team. It will be formally reviewed triennially.

Financial Considerations

Funding will be provided to properly resource risk management activities as identified through the annual budgeting process.

1 Introduction

The Eastern Metropolitan Regional Council's ('EMRC's') Risk Management Policy in conjunction with the components of this document encompasses the EMRC's Risk Management Framework. It sets out the EMRC's approach to the identification, assessment, management, reporting and monitoring of risks. All components of this document are based on AS/NZS ISO 31000:2018 Risk management - Guidelines.

It is essential that all areas of the EMRC adopt these procedures to ensure:

- Strong corporate governance.
- Compliance with relevant legislation, regulations and internal policies.
- Integrated Planning and Reporting requirements are met.
- Uncertainty and its effects on objectives is understood.

This Framework aims to balance a documented, structured and systematic process with the current size and complexity of the EMRC.

(Source : ISO 31000:2018)

2 Governance

Appropriate governance of risk management within the EMRC provides:

- Transparency of decision-making.
- Clear identification of the roles and responsibilities of the risk management functions.
- An effective governance structure to support the risk framework.

Framework Review

The Risk Management Framework is to be reviewed for appropriateness and effectiveness at least every three years.

Operating Model

The EMRC has adopted a “Three Lines of Defence” model for the management of risk. This model ensures roles; responsibilities and accountabilities for decision-making are structured to demonstrate effective governance and assurance. By operating within the approved risk appetite and framework, the Council, Management and Community will have assurance that risks are managed effectively to support delivery of the EMRC’s Strategic, Corporate and Operational Plans.

First Line of Defence

All operational areas of the EMRC are considered ‘1st Line’. They are responsible for ensuring that risks within their scope of operations are identified, assessed, managed, monitored and reported. Ultimately, they bear ownership and responsibility for losses or opportunities from the realisation of risk. Associated responsibilities include:

- Establishing and implementing appropriate processes and controls for the management of risk (in line with these procedures).
- Undertaking adequate analysis (data capture) to support the risk decision-making process.
- Prepare risk acceptance proposals where necessary, based on the level of residual risk.
- Retain primary accountability for the ongoing management of their risk and control environment.

Second Line of Defence

The Manager Procurement & Governance acts as the primary ‘2nd Line’. This position owns and manages the framework for risk management. They draft and implement the governance procedures and provide the necessary tools and training to support the 1st line process.

Maintaining oversight on the application of the framework provides a transparent view and level of assurance to the 1st and 3rd lines on the risk and control environment. Support can be provided by additional oversight functions completed by other 1st Line Teams (where applicable). Additional responsibilities include:

- Providing independent oversight of risk matters as required.
- Monitoring and reporting on emerging risks.
- Co-ordinating the EMRC’s risk reporting for the CEO and Senior Management Team and the Audit Committee.

Third Line of Defence

Internal and External Audit are the third line of defence, providing independent assurance to the Council, Audit Committee and EMRC Management on the effectiveness of business operations and oversight frameworks (1st and 2nd Line).

Internal Audit	Appointed by the CEO to report on the adequacy and effectiveness of internal control processes and procedures. The scope of which would be determined by the CEO with input from the Audit Committee.
External Audit	Appointed by Council on the recommendation of the Audit Committee to report independently to the CEO on the annual financial statements only.

3 Governance Structure

The following diagram depicts the current operating structure for risk management within EMRC.

- Liaise with Council in relation to risk acceptance requirements.
- Approve and review the appropriateness and effectiveness of the Risk Management Framework.
- Drive consistent embedding of a risk management culture.
- Analyse and discuss emerging risks, issues and trends.
- Document decisions and actions arising from risk-related matters.
- Own and manage the Risk Framework.

Manager Procurement and Governance

- Oversee and facilitate the Risk Management Framework.
- Support reporting requirements for risk-related matters.

Work Areas

- Drive risk management culture within work areas.
- Own, manage and report on specific risk issues as required.
- Assist in the risk & control management process as required.
- Highlight any emerging risks or issues accordingly.
- Incorporate risk management into meetings, by incorporating the following agenda items;
 - ⇒ New or emerging risks.
 - ⇒ Review existing risks.
 - ⇒ Control adequacy.
 - ⇒ Outstanding issues and actions.

5 Document Structure (Framework)

The following diagram depicts the relationship between the risk management Policy, Procedures and supporting documentation and reports.

6 Risk Management Procedures

All work areas of the EMRC are required to assess and manage risk on an ongoing basis.

Each manager, in conjunction with the Manager Procurement & Governance is accountable for ensuring that risk is:

- Reflective of the material risk landscape of the EMRC.
- Reviewed on at least a 12-month cycle, or sooner if there has been a material restructure or change in the risk and control environment.
- Maintained in the standard format.

This process is supported by the use of key data inputs, workshops and ongoing business engagement.

The risk management process is standardised across all areas of the EMRC. The following diagram outlines that process with the following commentary providing broad descriptions of each step.

A Scope, Context, Criteria

The first step in the risk management process is to understand the context within which risks are to be assessed and what is being assessed, this forms two elements:

Organisational Criteria

This includes the Risk Assessment and Acceptance Criteria (Appendix A) and any other tolerance tables as developed.

All risk assessments are to utilise these matrixes to allow consistent and comparable risk information to be developed and considered within planning and decision-making processes.

Scope and Context

To direct the identification of risks, the specific risk assessment context is to be determined prior to the assessment and used within the risk assessment process. Risk sources can be internal or external.

For specific risk-assessment purposes, the EMRC has three levels of risk assessment context:

Strategic Context

These risks are associated with achieving the organisation's long-term objectives. Inputs to establishing the strategic risk assessment context may include;

- Organisational Values / Vision
- Stakeholder Analysis
- Environment Scan / SWOT Analysis
- Strategies / Objectives / Goals (Integrated Planning & Reporting)

Operational Context

The EMRC's day to day activities, functions, infrastructure and services. Prior to identifying operational risks, the operational area should identify its key activities i.e. what it is aiming to achieve. In addition, existing identified risks are to be utilised where possible to assist in the identification of related risks.

These risks are expected to change over time. In order to ensure consistency, the Executive Management Group must approve any amendments.

Project Context

Project Risk has two main components:

- Direct context refers to the risks that may arise because of project activity (i.e. impacting on process, resources or IT systems), which may prevent the EMRC from meeting its objectives.
- Indirect refers to the risks that threaten the delivery of project outcomes.

In addition to understanding what is to be assessed, it is also important to understand who are the key stakeholders or areas of expertise that may need to be included within the risk assessment.

B Risk Identification

Once the context has been determined, the next step is to identify risks. This is the process of finding, recognising and describing risks. Risks are described as the point along an event sequence where control has been lost. An event sequence is shown below:

Using the specific risk assessment context as the foundation and in conjunction with relevant stakeholders, raise the questions listed below and then capture and review the information within each defined risk. The objective is to identify potential risks that could stop the EMRC from achieving its goals. This step is also where opportunities for enhancement or gain across the organisation can be found.

These questions / considerations should be used only as a guide, as unidentified risks can cause major losses through missed opportunities or adverse events occurring. Additional analysis may be required.

Risks can also be identified through other business operations including policy and procedure development, internal and external audits, customer complaints, incidents and systems analysis.

'Brainstorming' will always produce a broad range of ideas and all things should be considered as potential risks. Relevant stakeholders are considered to be the subject experts when considering potential risks to the objectives of the work environment and should be included in all risk assessments being undertaken. Key risks can then be identified and captured within risk categories.

- What can go wrong? / What are areas of uncertainty? (Risk Description)
- How may this risk eventuate? (Potential Causes)
- What are the current measurable activities that mitigate this risk from eventuating? (Controls)
- What are the potential consequential outcomes of the risk eventuating? (Consequences)

Risk Description Describe what the risk is and specifically where control may be lost. They can also be described as an event. They are not to be confused with outcomes following an event, or the consequences of an event.

Potential Causes Are the conditions that may present or the failures that may lead to the event, or point in time when control is lost (risk).

Controls Are measures that modify risk. At this point in the process, only existing controls should be considered. They must meet the following three tests to be considered controls:

1. Is it an object, technological system and / or human action?
2. Does it, by itself, arrest or mitigate an unwanted sequence?
3. Is the required performance specifiable, measurable and auditable?

Consequences Need to be impacts to the EMRC. These can be staff, visitor or contractor injuries; financial; interruption to services; non-compliance; damage to reputation or assets or the environment. There is no need to determine the level of impact at this stage.

C Risk Analysis

To analyse identified risks, the EMRC's Risk Assessment and Acceptance Criteria (Appendix A) is now applied.

Step 1 - Consider the Effectiveness of Key Controls

Controls need to be considered from three perspectives:

1. The design effectiveness of each individual key control.
2. The operating effectiveness of each individual key control.
3. The overall or combined effectiveness of all identified key controls.

Design Effectiveness

This process reviews the 'design' of the controls to understand their potential for mitigating the risk without any operating influences. Controls that have inadequate designs will never be effective, even if performed perfectly every time.

There are four components to be considered in reviewing existing controls or developing new ones:

1. Completeness – The ability to ensure the process is completed once. How does the control ensure that the process is not lost or forgotten, or potentially completed multiple times?
2. Accuracy – The ability to ensure the process is completed accurately, that no errors are made or components of the process missed.
3. Timeliness – The ability to ensure that the process is completed within statutory timeframes or internal service level requirements.
4. Theft or Fraud – The ability to protect against internal misconduct or external theft / fraudulent activities.

It is very difficult to have a single control that meets all the above requirements when viewed against a risk category. It is imperative that all controls are considered so that the above components can be met across a number of controls.

Operating Effectiveness

This process reviews how well the control design is being applied. Similar to above, the best-designed control will have no impact if it is not applied correctly.

As this generally relates to the human element of control application, four main approaches can be employed by management or the risk function to assist in determining the operating effectiveness and / or performance management.

- Re-perform – this is only applicable for those short timeframe processes where they can be re-performed. The objective is to re-perform the same task, following the design to ensure that the same outcome is achieved.
- Inspect – review the outcome of the task or process to provide assurance that the desired outcome was achieved.
- Observe – physically watch the task or process being performed.
- Inquire – through discussions with individuals / groups determine the relevant understanding of the process and how all components are required to mitigate any associated risk.

Overall Effectiveness

This is the value of the combined controls in mitigating the risk. All factors as detailed above are taken into account so that a considered qualitative value can be applied to the 'control' component of risk analysis.

The criterion for applying a value to the overall control is the same as for individual controls and can be found in Appendix A under 'Existing Control Ratings'.

Step 2 – Determine the Residual Risk rating

There are three components to this step:

1. Determine relevant consequence categories and rate the 'probable worst consequence' if the risk eventuated with existing controls in place. This is not the worst-case scenario but rather a qualitative judgement of the worst scenario that is probable or foreseeable. (Consequence)
2. Determine how likely it is that the 'probable worst consequence' will eventuate with existing controls in place. (Likelihood)
3. Using the EMRC's Risk Matrix, combine the measures of consequence and likelihood to determine the risk rating. (Risk Rating)

D Risk Evaluation

Risk evaluation takes the residual risk rating and applies it to the EMRC's Risk Acceptance Criteria (Appendix A) to determine whether the risk is within acceptable levels to the EMRC.

The outcome of this evaluation will determine whether the risk is low; moderate; high or extreme.

It will also determine using the Risk Acceptance Criteria, what (if any) high-level actions or treatments need to be implemented.

Note: Individual Risks or Issues may need to be escalated due to urgency, level of risk or of a systemic nature.

E Risk Treatment

There are generally two requirements following the evaluation of risks.

1. In all cases, regardless of the residual risk rating, controls rated 'Inadequate' must have a treatment plan (action) to improve the control effectiveness to at least 'Adequate'.
2. If the residual risk rating is high or extreme, treatment plans must be implemented to either:
 - a. Reduce the consequence of the risk materialising.
 - b. Reduce the likelihood of occurrence.
(Note: these should have the desired effect of reducing the risk rating to at least moderate)
 - c. Improve the effectiveness of the overall controls to 'Effective' and obtain approval to accept the risk as per the Risk Acceptance Criteria.

Once a treatment has been fully implemented, the Manager Procurement and Governance is to review the risk information and acceptance decision with the treatment now noted as a control, and those risks that are acceptable then become subject to the monitor and review process (Refer to Risk Acceptance section).

Risk Acceptance

Day to day operational management decisions are generally managed under the delegated authority framework of the EMRC. Risk Acceptance is a management decision to accept, within authority levels, risks that fall within EMRC's risk appetite (refer Appendix A – Risk Assessment and Acceptance Criteria).

For those identified risks that remain outside of appetite, the following process must be followed:

The 'Risk Acceptance' must be in writing, signed by the relevant Manager, copied to the CEO, and include;

- A description of the risk and the reasons for holding a risk outside appetite
- An assessment of the risk (e.g. Impact consequence, materiality, likelihood, working assumptions etc)
- Details of any mitigating action plans or treatment options in place
- An estimate of the expected remediation date.

A lack of budget / funding to remediate a material risk outside appetite is not sufficient justification in itself to accept a risk.

Accepted risks must be continually reviewed through standard operating reporting structure (i.e. Management Team).

F Communication & Consultation

Effective communication and consultation are essential to ensure that those responsible for managing risk, and those with a vested interest, understand the basis on which decisions are made and why particular treatment / action options are selected or the reasons to accept risks have changed.

As risk is defined as the effect of uncertainty on objectives, consulting with relevant stakeholders assists in the reduction of components of uncertainty. Communicating these risks and the information surrounding the event sequence ensures decisions are based on the best available knowledge.

G Monitoring and Review

It is essential to monitor and review the management of risks, as changing circumstances may result in some risks increasing or decreasing in significance.

By regularly reviewing the effectiveness and efficiency of controls and the appropriateness of treatment / action options selected, we can determine if the organisation's resources are being put to the best use possible.

During the reporting process, management are required to review any risks within their area and follow up on controls, treatments, and actions mitigating those risks. Monitoring and the reviewing of risks, controls and treatments also apply to any actions / treatments to originate from an internal audit. The audit report will provide recommendations that effectively are treatments for risks that have been tested during an internal review.

H Recording and Reporting

The following diagram provides a high-level view of the ongoing reporting process for risk management.

Each Work Area is responsible for ensuring:

- They continually provide updates in relation to new, emerging risks, control effectiveness and key indicator performance to the Manager Procurement & Governance.
- Work through assigned actions and provide relevant updates to the Manager Procurement & Governance.
- Risks / Issues reported to the CEO & Senior Management Team are reflective of the current risk and control environment.
- The Manager Procurement & Governance is responsible for:
- Ensuring EMRC risk categories are formally reviewed and updated, at least on a 12-month cycle or earlier when there has been a material restructure, change in risk ownership or change in the external environment.
- Annual risk reporting for the CEO & Senior Management Team is an overview of the risk summary for the EMRC.
- Annual Compliance Audit Return completion and lodgement.

7 Key Indicators

Key Indicators may be used for monitoring and validating key risks and controls. The following describes the process for the creation and reporting of Key Indicators:

- 7.1. Identification
- 7.2 Validity of Source
- 7.3 Tolerances
- 7.4 Monitor & Review

7.1. Identification

The following represent the minimum standards when identifying appropriate Key Indicators:

- The risk description and casual factors are fully understood
- The Key Indicator is fully relevant to the risk or control
- Predictive Key Indicators are adopted wherever possible
- Key Indicators provide adequate coverage over monitoring key risks and controls

7.2 Validity of Source

In all cases, an assessment of the data quality, integrity and frequency must be completed to ensure that the Key Indicator data is relevant to the risk or control.

Where possible the source of the data (data owner) should be independent to the risk owner. Overlapping Key Indicators can be used to provide a level of assurance on data integrity.

If the data or source changes during the life of the Key Indicator, the data is required to be re-validated to ensure reporting of the Key Indicator against a consistent baseline.

7.3 Tolerances

Tolerances are based on the EMRC's Risk Appetite. They are set and agreed over three levels:

- Green Within appetite, no action required.
- Amber The Key Indicators must be closely monitored and relevant actions set and implemented to bring the measure back within the green tolerance.
- Red Outside of risk appetite, the Key Indicator must be escalated to the CEO & Management Team. Where appropriate, management actions are to be set and implemented to bring the measure back within appetite.

7.4 Monitor and Review

All active Key Indicators are updated as per their stated frequency of the data source.

When monitoring and reviewing Key Indicators, the overall trend must be considered over a longer timeframe than that of individual data movements only. The trend of the Key Indicators is specifically used as an input to the risk and control assessment.

Risk Appetite Statement

Purpose

The EMRC is strongly committed to risk management as part of its corporate governance framework. The EMRC's Risk Management Strategy is focused on ensuring that the EMRC makes informed decisions in terms of its strategies and operations ensuring that risks and opportunities are adequately considered.

Risk Appetite

Risk Appetite relates to the amount and type of risk that the EMRC is willing to take in order to achieve its strategic objectives.

The EMRC's overall risk appetite is "risk averse". When discussing risk appetite, acceptable tolerances will be defined using the following terminology:

- No tolerance
- Low tolerance
- Moderate tolerance
- High tolerance

The EMRC's culture is focused on innovation and continuous improvement and delivering innovation and focusing on opportunities to enhance service delivery carry risk. What is important is that the EMRC takes calculated risks by ensuring that risks are properly identified, evaluated and managed to ensure that risk exposure is acceptable.

The EMRC's risk appetite is generally higher when it can be demonstrated that the benefits created through innovative concepts outweigh the associated risks.

The EMRC's Risk Appetite is assessed against the main areas of risk consequence expressed within the Risk Management Plan.

Health/People

The EMRC has a low appetite for workplace injury to employees and contractors, acknowledging that the nature and diversity of work undertaken may result in minor injuries. Work safety practices are subject to ongoing review and there is no tolerance for employees not following safe work practices.

The EMRC's safety management practices are designed to proactively identify and control workplace hazards and there is no appetite for the non-effective use of this process. In the event of injury or near miss, these events are to be reported as soon as practically possible in order to provide appropriate support and to reduce the opportunity for reoccurrences.

There is also no appetite for incidents that are reasonably foreseeable and issues that may impact public safety. The EMRC carries out routine inspections of land and public areas under the EMRC's care and control and facilities in order to identify potential hazards, with mitigation works carried out according to the risk. Public notifications of potential hazards are also prioritised and scheduled according to the risk.

Financial Impact

The EMRC has no appetite for any actions that are known, or upon reasonable investigation, ought to be known, to unacceptably threaten the long-term financial sustainability of the EMRC. So as to achieve financial sustainability, the EMRC may undertake investigation into alternate revenue streams hence there is a moderate appetite for activities that are likely to provide economic and revenue growth opportunities.

The EMRC's Investment Policy outlines the risk appetite which is aligned with Local Government Legislative requirements. Focus is on maintaining liquidity, for which there is a low appetite to risk.

Materiality will be a guiding principle in assessing financial risk appetite.

Service Interruption

The EMRC has no appetite for service disruptions exceeding one business day. There is a low appetite for ongoing disruption to core services that provide direct customer contact that exceed one business day.

In order to support service delivery across the business there is a low appetite for Information Technology and key corporate systems disruptions and the EMRC's IT Assets must be secure, routinely backed up and maintained.

Compliance

The EMRC is subject to a number of statutory and regulatory obligations and there is no appetite for deliberate unlawful actions by Employees or Elected Members.

The EMRC is reliant on a combination of policies, procedures and processes to maintain compliance. There is a low appetite for minor and unintentional breaches, or activities that may result in non-compliance by the EMRC Employees or Elected Members.

Reputational

The EMRC has no appetite for theft, fraud or misconduct by employees, Elected Members or external parties for which the EMRC is vicariously liable.

The EMRC has a low appetite for actions or activities that have a sustained adverse impact on the EMRC's reputation, where those risks are avoidable through the application of good governance and practices.

The EMRC regards customer service as vitally important and the appetite for inaccurate and untimely advice is low.

Property

There is a low appetite for extensive damage to property including plant and machinery requiring a prolonged period of restitution.

The EMRC has no appetite for complete loss of plant, equipment and building resulting in service disruptions of more than one day.

Environment

The EMRC operates within a diverse and complex natural environment. Maintaining its natural environment and focusing on long term sustainability is key focus for the EMRC.

As such the EMRC has no appetite for unauthorised activities that are known, or ought to be known to result in degradation of the natural environment.

The EMRC has a low appetite for inadequacies relating to natural hazard risk mitigation under its direct control and a medium appetite where risk is impacted by third parties and accordingly will seek to ensure proactive mitigation in all such risks in coordination with relevant state government agencies.

The EMRC has a low appetite for ineffective contaminated site management.

Project Time

The EMRC has a low appetite for variations for significant or high-risk projects that exceed 10% of time and has a medium appetite to variations for other projects.

Project Cost

The EMRC has a low appetite for project cost variances exceeding 10%.
