SOURCE OF REPORT

Manager Human Resources

BACKGROUND

Mr Schneider tendered his resignation from his role as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Eastern Metropolitan Regional Council (the EMRC), by the giving of three months' notice effective 1 February 2019.

As a consequence of the Chairman's discussion with Mr Schneider on 12 November 2018, and an agreed termination date, the position of CEO will potentially become vacant on 8 December 2018, making it necessary to commence recruitment of a new CEO.

The relevant legislation covering the advertising and appointment of a local government CEO is contained within Part 5 Division 4 of the Local Government Act 1995 and the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 (regulation 18A to 18F).

The specific documentation that guides the recruitment and appointment process includes:

- Relevant sections of the Local Government Act 1995 (5.36, 5.39, 5.40); and
- Relevant sections of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 (18A, 18B, 18C, 18E, 18F).

REPORT

Selecting and appointing a CEO is an important decision that should be underpinned by an effective recruitment and selection process. The process should be seen as being professional, confidential, and transparent, and be designed to attract suitably qualified and experienced candidates. In light of the importance of the position to the EMRC it is considered that the process of identifying a suitable replacement should be commenced as a matter of priority.

The Local Government Act 1995 ("the Act") s5.36 prescribes that a local government is to employ a Chief Executive Officer and in accordance with regulation 18C of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996, the selection and appointment process to be applied to a CEO position must be approved by Council prior to the position being advertised.

Role of Council

In accordance with s5.36 of the Act Council is not to employ a person to the position of CEO unless they believe that the person is suitably qualified for the position and Council must also be satisfied with the provisions of the proposed employment contract.

Regulation 18C of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 requires Council to approve the process to be used for the selection and appointment of a CEO (Attachment 1) before the position is advertised and must ensure that the remuneration and other benefits paid to a CEO upon appointment do not differ from the remuneration and benefits advertised for the position, in accordance with r18F.

Outsourcing the Recruitment Process

One of the first decisions to be made by Council is whether to handle the recruitment in-house or appoint an independent external recruitment agency to coordinate the recruitment and selection process.

Although the EMRC's Manager Human Resources is skilled at recruiting staff at all levels, she has resigned from the organisation and her role is likely to be filled by a member of the HR team in an acting capacity, who has not previously been involved in a CEO recruitment assignment.

The appointment of an external recruitment consultant would ensure that sufficient resources are allocated specifically to the recruitment process and would enable the process to be strengthened with an executive search element. Generally, specialist recruitment consultants provide a professional and confidential service and possess a wide range of knowledge and skills in executive recruitment. Council had previously utilised the services of an external recruitment consultant to fill the current CEO's role.

Based on the brief provided, an external recruitment consultant could be involved in any or all of the following aspects of the recruitment and selection process:

- Development and review of the position description;
- Development of selection criterion for the position;
- Drafting of the advertisement and placement in the selected media;
- Preparation of candidate information packs;
- Acting as point of contact for application enquiries;
- Preliminary assessment of the applications;
- Final short-listing of suitable candidates;
- Drafting interview questions;
- Coordinating interviews;
- Conducting background and reference checks;
- Finalising the contract;
- And any other related matters.

It is recommended that a suitably experienced recruitment consultant or agency, preferably with experience in executive recruitment for local government, be engaged to complete this assignment. To assist this process, a consultancy brief will be prepared by the Manager Human Resources and a Request for Quotation (RFQ) will be advertised.

Recruitment Committee

It is recommended that Council establish a CEO Recruitment Committee (CEORC) to coordinate the recruitment process as this will be an effective mechanism for completing the selection and recruitment of the CEO in a timely manner.

The committee could be tasked with any or all of the following functions:

1. To engage an external recruitment consultant to facilitate the recruitment process;
2. To work collaboratively with the consultant to determine an appropriate interview and selection process and develop the position description, selection criteria and performance criteria for the role;
3. To facilitate the preparation of an appropriate contract of employment prior to advertising the position;
4. To determine how many applicants, it will interview;
5. To arrange for up to four (4) preferred applicant(s) to attend Council for an interview and/or presentation prior to a decision to appoint being made by Council; and
6. To keep Council informed of the progress of the recruitment process by reporting to Council meetings.

The EMRC Human Resources staff will provide administrative support and guidance on the completion of appropriate documentation and reports to Council to ensure the recruitment and selection process meets EMRC and statutory requirements.

Industry practise suggests that a committee set up for the purpose of recruiting a CEO would ideally consist of no more than 5 to 6 members, including the Chairman and Deputy Chairman.

The EMRC Chairman and Deputy Chairman are members of the current Chief Executive Officer Performance Review Committee (CEOPRC) and it is proposed that the CEOPRC members be appointed members of the CEORC with appropriate terms of reference and delegated power (Attachment 2).

If this is approved then the composition of the CEORC will be:

Participant Local Government	Council Member
Town of Bassendean	Cr Wilson
City of Bayswater	Cr Palmer
City of Belmont	Cr Powell
City of Kalamunda	Cr O'Connor
Shire of Mundaring	Cr Daw
City of Swan	Cr McDonnell

Alternatively, there is the option for Council to seek nominations from all Councillors who wish to be members of the CEORC.

Timetable

A timetable for the selection and recruitment of the new CEO has been prepared (Attachment 1). The actions and timeline includes a proposal that a Special Council meeting scheduled on 27 June 2019 for Council to interview up to four (4) preferred candidates through a presentation session and questions posed by the Council. It is anticipated the final decision on the preferred candidate for the position of CEO will be made at that meeting.

It is to be noted that the timelines are indicative and could change based on various matters including Councillor and prospective candidates' availability.
